

Full-Time New Student

Estimated Billing Worksheet (rev. April 2017)

This Estimated Billing Worksheet is a tool to enable students and their families to plan for the payment of tuition and fees while attending Columbia College Hollywood. You should use this worksheet to estimate your out-of-pocket costs to attend CCH. We have prefilled in estimated fixed charges where applicable. All other fields such as tuition and campus housing charges should be filled in by you based on your selections.

Payment Options and Explanations

We understand that in some cases, the total financial aid available may not be enough to fully cover your costs. Therefore CCH offers other ways to help you finance any remaining balance due. Please feel free to contact our Student Accounts Office at (818) 345-8414 for more information on the payment options listed.

Columbia College Hollywood prides itself on the affordability of its education for families from all economic backgrounds. We do not want the cost of education to become a barrier to your enrollment. Please feel free to contact us so that we can provide additional assistance.

Option 1 - Payment In Full

To pay your balance in full, payment must be received by the 2nd Friday after the start of the academic term. Late fees apply if the balance is not paid in full by this date. Checks and credit cards accepted. You may pay in person or via the Online Student Portal.

Option 2 - Quarterly Payment Plan

Three equal payments over the academic term with due dates provided to by your Student Accounts Coordinator. Divide your Total Amount Due due by 3 in order to calculate the amount of each payment due. Students who choose this option are required to pay a $50.00 Deferred Payment Plan fee, however no other interest or finance charges apply. A $25.00 late fee applies to any late payment received under this payment method. You may pay in-person or via the Online Student Portal.

Housing Students

Students residing in campus housing may be required to pay their first month's housing fee in advance. Please contact your Housing Coordinator for additional details.
